AVONDALE GRAMMAR SCHOOL CELEBRATES 4th BIRTHDAY WITH HUGE CAKE AND LUNCHTIME BARBECUE FOR STUDENTS, PARENTS AND STAFF

NEWS RELEASE

Singapore, 10th June 2011

Parents, students and staff cheered and sang Happy Birthday as 5 year old Beatrice Ashman, a kindergarten student, blew out the candles this morning (June 10th 2011) to celebrate the 4th birthday of Avondale Grammar School, Singapore's fastest growing Independent International School.

Head of School Mr Andrew Coote, thanked parents and students for their enthusiastic support of Avondale Birthday Week which kicked off with a Dad's Weekend Camp at St Johns Island and included a midweek Family Musical Concert featuring performances by the entire student body and an exciting presentation to Kindergarten students by the Singapore Police.

"A great Aussie barbecue is now the traditional end to Birthday Week at Avondale and we can all look forward to our fifth year and to more growth and achievement for our students and our school" commented Mr Coote.

Avondale Grammar School is an Independent International School which follows the Australian National Curriculum and is located at Phoenix Park Campus in the heart of Singapore. The school accepts children aged 3 – 12 years in preschool to year 6 and is committed to developing students to have a Lifelong Love of Learning.
